

achievements of Paralympians. Through a series of assemblies the children have focussed on learning some British Sign Language, learning about the terms equity and equality and finding more out about sport and disability. Our chosen charity is the RNIB (Royal National Institute of the Blind) and next week Delilah and Mackinley will be running an ice cream stall on the playground at the end of the day to raise money for this charity. More details to follow on this.

This week has also seen our transition days where children have moved into new year groups to find out more about how it will feel to be a year older working with different children. Our new classes have been a big success and the children have enjoyed meeting new teachers, learning in different classrooms and joining new friends. See further down for some of the feedback the children gave about being in their new classrooms.

Thank you for everyone who joined us after school today at our annual Summer Fair. It was a great event and as always we have to thank our fabulous TPAC team for the hours of planning and organisation that have been put into making this such a successful event.
